

Spanish, French, or Pirate? Learn A New Language

Jolie Duncan

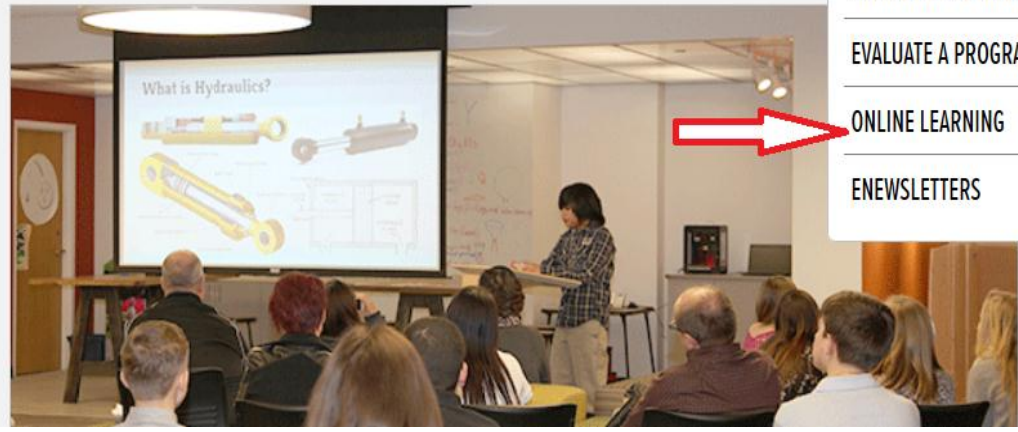

Info Services Supervisor

jduncan@ahml.info

Arlington Heights Memorial LIBRARY

Search the Library Catalog

Advanced Search

- ALL PROGRAMS
- BOOK & WRITING GROUPS
- COMPUTER & TECHNOLOG
- EVALUATE A PROGRAM
- ONLINE LEARNING
- NEWSLETTERS

Username or Email: ***

Password: ***

LOG IN

Create Account | Can't Log in?

- STUDIO
- eBOOKS
- BUSINESS CENTER

- iPhone/Android app available
- 65 languages available
- Ability to create an account to track your progress (not required)
- Broken into units, chapters, lessons
- Record your voice to practice pronunciation

pronunciator:

- App for iPhone and Android available
- Lessons in over 80 languages
- Emphasis on pronunciation
- Register for free (Required)
- Each language course has a minimum of 1,500 phrases to learn, and most have 10,000 phrases
- Features include: virtual conversations, virtual coaches, quizzes, speech recognition, downloadable audio lessons

The Duolingo logo, featuring the word "duolingo" in a white, lowercase, sans-serif font on a dark blue rectangular background.

Duolingo.com

- Highly rated app; Apple's 2013 app of the year
- Free; apps for iOS, Android, Windows
- “Gamification”—earn points with each lesson
- Smaller selection of languages
- Create a profile to save your progress (not required)
- Practice your skills by reading and translating real articles from the Internet.

Livemocha.com

- Owned by Rosetta Stone
- “Free” online language learning—earn and use tokens
- 35 languages
- Must create an account to access the resources
- Submit exercises for the community to critique
- Online practice with native speakers

7 Secrets From the Experts

- Pick an attainable goal
  - Example: pick 50 words to use regularly
- Make it a lifestyle change
- Use it in your daily life
- Use technology
- Gateway to new experiences
- Make new friends
- Don't worry about mistakes

Questions?